TREASURER WANTED – CPRE Oxfordshire, The Countryside Charity

Could you use your finance skills to help save the countryside?

CPRE Oxfordshire is the voice of the countryside in Oxfordshire. We fight for the right development in the right place and work to protect, promote and enhance our amazing local landscapes and rural character. We are currently looking for a Treasurer to join our team of passionate and committed trustees.

- Do you have experience in financial management?
- Are you passionate about environmental and countryside issues?
- Do you have 3-4 hours a week to spare?

We are looking for someone with the relevant skills to help us continue our strong financial management, including experience of managing budgets, accounts and investments, a familiarity with financial software/spreadsheets, and an ability to provide financial updates and present information in an understandable way.

By volunteering with us you will be helping to find positive solutions for the issues facing the countryside and the environment. By applying your skills and experience you can make a real difference to your local environment and be a central part of our friendly and passionate charity.
